RDC procures dental operating microscope via MoU with IOCL

It is a wonderful momentous occasion for Departments of Conservative Dentistry and Endodontics, Regional Dental College, Guwahati, to procure the state-of-the-art Dental Operating Microscope, through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with IOCL which has extended generous financial assistance for the procurement of the same under CSR project. No wonder, It's a significant addition to our Endodontics and Restorative Dental practice as it's a DCI norm for Postgraduate curriculum.

On June 24, 2025, the IOCL official formally handed over the asset to the department which was a long felt and much needed requirement. Our department is now equipped with advanced magnification systems, enhancing our ability to provide high-quality, minimally invasive dental care to the needy people of Assam as well as the entire NE region in the field of Endodontics. We are sure that this development definitely create impact in better patient care and outcomes through cutting-edge technology in the field of dentistry.

In this regard, I extend my sincere gratitude to Malati Malakar Senior Manager (HR-CSR) and Rajesh Nambiar, Executive Director & SH, IOAAD, Assam state and other officials for their unwavering support, co-operation and prompt response to complete the project within a short period of time, is really commendable and praiseworthy.

I would also like to express my sincere thanks to Respected Siddharth Singh Sir, IAS, Commissioner and Secretary MERD department, Govt of Assam, who had grace the moments of inauguration function with his valuable presence and eloquent speech in spite of his busy schedule.

I will remain grateful always to Prof. Anup kr Barman, the DME, Assam, Debeswar Borah, Ex Joint Secretary, MERD, Assam, Ranveer Borah, Additional DME, Assam for their continuous support and guidance throughout this project.

USTM commences four-day induction programme for its first batch of nursing students

9TH MILE, Khanapara, Ri Bhoi, AUG 21: The University of Science and Technology Meghalaya (USTM), through its esteemed Regional Institute of Nursing Education (RINE), has commenced a comprehensive four-day induction program for its first batch of nursing students, beginning August 19, 2025.

The inaugural day of the orientation was marked by the gracious presence of Dr. Unmona Bargohain, Principal of AIIMS, and Ms. Ivory Kharduit, Deputy Director of Nursing, Government of Meghalaya, who attended as Chief Guests. The event witnessed added significance with the presence of Padma Shri Dr. Sarbeswar Sahariya, Pro Vice-Chancellor, USTM, whose address inspired students to uphold the highest standards of service and humanity in nursing.

Also present was Dr. Abhinandan Das, Principal of PIMC, who shared key insights into interdisciplinary collaboration in healthcare and encouraged students to embrace innovation and lifelong learning. Their insightful addresses set an inspiring tone for the budding nursing professionals, highlighting the values of dedication, compassion, and professionalism in healthcare.

Also addressing the students were distinguished medical educators and scholars, including Dr. Kalpana Hazarika, Principal of RINE; Dr. Pooja Chaudhuri; Dr. Mitali Goswami; Dr. Geeta Das, Principal; and Dr. Shyam Sundar Sarma, Assistant Professor, among others.

Their collective expertise and passion created an intellectually vibrant atmosphere, enriching the students' introduction to the nursing profession.

The induction day featured a series of engaging sessions—ranging from expert talks and interactive discussions to practical experiences in hospital environments, skill laboratories, and first aid training. A notable highlight was the visit to the university's Herbal Garden, where students learned about the relevance and application of alternative therapies in modern nursing.

Dr. Baby Dutta led a session on career opportunities in nursing, underlining the importance of professional ethics, continuous learning, and a commitment to patient care.

The day's activities concluded with a vibrant cultural program, encouraging teamwork, creativity, and camaraderie among students—a perfect close to a day filled with learning and connection.

With three more days of interactive learning, field exposure, and skill-building ahead, the orientation program at USTM promises to equip nursing students with a strong foundation as they begin their professional journey. NET BUREAU

Arunachal Photography Club celebrates its 10-year journey

ITANAGAR, AUG 21: The Arunachal Photography Club (APC), in collaboration with the department of information and public relations celebrated its 10-year journey with a 3-day programme from 17 to 19 August at the State Banquet Hall here, marking the World Photography Day. Held under the theme 'Decade of Timeless Moments-Arunachal in Focus,' the event brought together enthusiasts, professionals, students, and creative voices from across the state in a spirited celebration of visual storytelling.

The second day of the event kicked off with a street photography walk at Ganga Market here, encouraging participants to capture candid moments of everyday life. The inaugural session led by organizing chairman Kamen Takam and APC president Radhe Natung highlighted the club's decade-long journey and exhorted the young photographers to push beyond hobbies and pursue photography as a career.

APC's founding president Hali Welly and Space Miracle Studio's MD Allison Welly were also present. Sharing his personal story of passion and perseverance, Welly said, "Grab your camera, explore Arunachal, and let your creativity shine."

Workshops and discussions formed main parts of the event.

Award-winning wildlife photographer Kallol Mukherjee led an interactive session titled "Behind the Click," stressing that creativity can begin at one's doorstep, with Arunachal offering limitless inspiration. A lively panel discussion on photography and self-expression, moderated by Itanagar SP Jumar Basar and ISCDCL CEO Dakey Sangno, with Welly and Mukherjee as panelists underscored that passion and purpose remain the defining elements of the craft, even in a digital age.

The photo exhibition showcased works from APC's decade-long journey, featuring themes like culture, landscape, street, portrait and wildlife alongside IPR's archives. Exhibition stalls and a photography competition themed "My favourite photo" added flavour to the event, with winners recognized in both professional and amateur categories.

IPR minister Nyato Dukam, IPR secretary Nyali Ete and IPR director Gijum Tali attended the closing ceremony. Dukam commended APC for fostering creativity and providing youth with a constructive and inspiring platform.

A documentary chronicling APC's growth was also screened along with felicitations of former members. Special recognition was awarded to Alisha K. Meitei, social work mobiliser of DMO ICR for her support in awareness initiatives, and MD of New Hope Foundation Rehab & Detox Centre, Tadar Hania for his contributions to drug de-addiction campaigns including collaboration with APC. Manipur Guv reviews law & order

IMPHAL, AUG 21: Manipur Governor Ajay Kumar Bhal-la on Tuesday visited tribal inhabited Churachandpur district, held discussions with the Kuki-Zo tribal community leaders and reviewed the overall development initiatives and security measures in the district, officials said.

A Home Department official said that the Governor, along with the First Lady, visited a pre-fabricated resettlement camp at Torbung, where he met with violence-hit Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs). He inaugurated a Crèche Centre and distributed relief materials to the IDPs.

The Governor also felicitated two students who cracked NEET-2025 along with other meritorious students from the relief camp and wished them success in future.

Kuki Students' Organization and Village Chiefs submitted memoranda to Bhalla and requested the construction of a multipurpose hall in the area.

Later, the Governor chaired interactive sessions with MLAs, representatives of Civil Society Organisations and student leaders.

Representatives of Kuki-Zo Council (KZC), an apex body of the Kuki-Zo tribal community, submitted memorandum to the Governor highlighting a wide range of issues in education, connectivity, governance, among other issues.

The KZC leaders requested the Governor to take up appropriate measures for the welfare of the people. The Zomi Council, led by its leaders, also interacted with the Governor and raised their concerns regarding the resettlement of IDPs and their welfare measures. They also highlighted their grievances and requested the Governor to take up necessary steps.

The governor acknowledged their concerns and heard their grievances. In the afternoon, the Governor reviewed the overall security situation in the Churachandpur district and a detailed presentation was given by Commander, 27 Sector, Assam Rifles, Brigadier S. Prashanth at the Sector Headquarters. Director General, Assam Rifles, Lt. General Vikas Lakhera; Inspector General, Assam Rifles (South) Maj. General Ravroop Singh, Manipur Police Inspector General Kabib K. and other police and military officers attended the meeting. PTI
