

Procedure and Guidelines Governing Insider Trading

Objective: Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) notified 'SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations 2015.

In deference to the abovementioned Regulations B&A Ltd (hereinafter referred to as the Company), through its Board of Directors has formulated 'Procedure and Guidelines Governing Insider Trading' to lay down principles of fair disclosures adopted by the company for the purpose of dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information and standards for fair trading in shares of the company by Insiders and reporting thereon. SEBI has further notified SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading & Amendments) Regulations 2018 on 31st December 2018 which has brought certain changes in the Regulations. The Policy is upgraded by amending certain portions of the original policy to give effect to the changes in the Regulation.

The Guidelines have five separate sections. The first section deals with the definitions of words and phrases used in the code. Second section deals with the practice and procedure adopted by the Company for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information and has been classified as 'Code of Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company.' The third section aims to regulate, monitor and report trading by the employees and other connected persons of the company and has been collated as 'Code of Conduct of fair Trading by Designated Persons of the Company.' The fourth section deals with communication and amendment of the policies. And the fifth section comprises of format of disclosures required under the codes.

The 'Code of Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company' has been made pursuant to Regulation 8 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time and hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations".

The 'Code of Conduct of fair Trading by Designated Persons of the Company' has been made pursuant to Regulation 9 of the Regulations. Both these revised codes will be effective from 12th day of February 2019 i.e. on which the Board of Directors has adopted these regulations.

These Codes will be applicable to Directors/Officers/Connected Person/Designated Employees of B&A Ltd and their immediate relatives as defined herein and contravention of these Codes will attract such sanctions and disciplinary actions including wage freeze, suspension etc., as may be decided by the Board of Directors on case to case basis apart from the penalties under the Act' which the Securities and Exchange Board of India could impose upon the defaulter.

II. Code of Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company

- 1. No employee or officer or connected person of the company who is in possession of any price sensitive information shall communicate, provide or allow access to such information to any other person including other employee or officer or connected person who generally or reasonably is not expected to require such information for performance of his duties, except with the express permission of the Investor Relations Officer. However, such price sensitive information could be shared by such employee or officer or connected person for furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The legitimate purpose shall mean sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an employee or officers or connected person of the company with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisers, auditors, insolvency, professionals, or advisor or consultants provided that such sharing do not evade the prohibition of the Regulations. The employee, officer or connected person shall give due notice to the person receiving such price sensitive information to maintain confidentiality of such information.

- 2. No employee or officer or connected person shall acquire or solicit any price sensitive information from any employee or officer or connected person unless required for performance of his duties.
- 3. The price sensitive information of the company should be handled as 'Need-to-Know' basis and access to confidential information is strictly restricted to those who have a proper requirement for the information consistent with his job-content. For this, information barriers ('Chinese Walls') which are designed to restrict information flows between different departments of the company is essential so that information can be used by only relevant personnel without any conflict of interest. For this purpose the company has in place a secure and confidential database systems maintained within the company where only authorized personnel could access the relevant information. Further any secondary or tertiary report containing price sensitive information could be forwarded and used by any other department only with the authorization of the concerned departmental head. Further, workstations of employees of the secretarial, finance and legal department are separated from other departments to prevent encroachment of information.
- 4. The investor relations officer shall cause to make a clear demarcation between the generally available information and protected information of the company and inculcate among the employees dealing with price sensitive or protected information a sense of confidentiality. The investor relations officer shall cause to identify information channels within offices of all designated employees and workstations dealing with price sensitive or protected information and shall put a system to avoid any unauthorized access to all information. The investor relations officer shall cause to take such steps as are necessary to preserve the confidentiality of price sensitive information of the company unless published. The Board of Directors in consultation with the company secretary shall ensure that a structured database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under the regulations along with Permanent Account Number or any other identifiers authorized by law. Such database shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and others such as time stamping and audit trails to cause non-tampering of the database. The designated persons shall be required to disclose such information as required to disclose such information as required by this provisions for the purpose of maintenance of the database. The Board of Directors shall cause a confidentiality agreement be signed or proper notice be served to all employee and persons who have access to unpublished price sensitive.

- 5. All designated employees should maintain absolute confidentiality on any unpublished price sensitive information and shall not disseminate any such information without express permission of the Board of Directors or an advice from the Compliance Officer.
- 6. The investor relations officer shall check the credibility of any unpublished price sensitive information and upon instruction, cause prompt public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information. For example the investor relations officer will cause to disseminate the financial results of the company promptly once these are approved by the Board of Directors and instructed to be published.
- 7. The investor relations officer shall disseminate all unpublished price sensitive information in all or any of the following platforms:
 - (a) By a letter, fax or email to the Corporate Relations Manager of the Stock Exchange requesting hosting the information in its official website.
 - (b) Hosting the information in the official website of the Company.
 - (c) Publishing information in such print or electronic media as instructed by the Board of Directors.
 - (d) In such other ways as instructed by the Board of Directors.
- 8. The investor relations officer shall make a prompt and fair response to any queries made by any investor on new report or information published by the company and addresses all queries or requests for verification made by any regulatory authority on any market rumors.
- 9. The investor relations officer shall ensure that information shared with analysts of the company is not unpublished price sensitive information.
- 10. The investor relations officer shall promptly host reports given by the analysts of the company in the official website of the company.
- 11. In any instance, where any insider knowingly or unknowingly discloses any unpublished price sensitive information to any outsider or the investor relations officer has reasonable ground to believe that any unpublished price sensitive information is disclosed to any outsider, they will promptly bring this to the notice of the compliance officer to take such steps as are necessary to preserve the confidentiality of the information including requiring the outsider to sign a confidentiality agreement.

III. Code of Conduct of Fair Trading by Designated Persons of the Company

- 1. Prohibited Trades: No employee or officer of the company or their immediate relative shall trade in securities of the company while they are in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.
- 2. Trading Window: No designated employee his immediate relatives shall trade in securities of the company when the trading window is closed. For the purpose of this code trading window will remain closed for a period beginning with the end of each quarter except the last quarter of any financial year and will open 48 hours of publication of quarterly financial results. Trading window will remain closed for the period beginning with the end of the financial year and will open 48 hours of publication of annual results of the company. The compliance officer in consultation with the Company Management may from time to time designate and announce intermittent closure of trading window.
- 3. Preclearance of Trade: No designated employee or his immediate relatives shall trade in securities of the company exceeding Rs. 50,000 in value, or such higher amount as may be decided by the Board of Directors from time to time, without obtaining a preclearance from the compliance officer as provided in Annexure-I. However, such person shall not apply for pre-clearance of trades if he is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed. The compliance officer may seek declaration from the concerned person that he is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. All pre cleared trades by a designated employee or his immediate relatives have to be concluded within 7 days of preclearance and should be reported to the compliance officer by email or facsimile transmission promptly upon execution of the trade as per Annexure- II but in no event later than the next business day after the execution of such trade. Further no designated employee or connected person or their immediate relatives shall execute a contra trade against pre cleared ones within a period of six months. The compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation to preclearance or contra trade subject to the provisions of the Regulations but he will record the reasons in writing. The existence of the process of preclearance does not in any way obligate the compliance officer or the Board of Directors to approve any particular trades. The compliance officer may reject any trading requests at his sole and reasonable discretion. However, no preclearance is required where the trade is made pursuant to a trading plan formulated by the designated employee or their immediate relative and approved by the Board of Directors.
- 4. Trading Plan: A designated employee or their immediate relative may opt for a trading plan to avoid accusations of insider trading. Such trading plan should be in the form as provided in Annexure-III and set out the value of trades or number of securities in the company to be traded alongwith nature of trade and the intervals or dates within which the trades should be affected. A trading plan shall entail trading in the company's securities for a period not less than 12 months and should be presented before the compliance officer at least 7 months prior to the commencement of trade. However, no trading plan will be made for the periods when trading window is closed for publication of quarterly and annual results. The compliance officer shall check the trading plan to assess whether the plan would violate any of the regulations or the policy and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to ensure such assessment. Compliance Officer shall cause the trading plan be placed before the Board of Directors for approval. The Board of Directors may approve the trading plan with necessary changes as it will consider fit in this regard. The compliance officer shall notify the approved plan to the stock exchange. Once a trading plan is approved it becomes irrevocable and shall have to be mandatorily implemented without any deviation unless any unpublished price sensitive information which is in possession of the concerned person has not been made public during implementation of the plan. In such event the compliance officer shall confirm the postponement of the plan. All trades executed within trading plan should be reported to the compliance officer by email or facsimile transmission promptly upon execution of the trade but in no event later than the next business day after the execution of such trade. Further concerned employee or related person will not be entitled to initiate any other trade in company's securities outside the approved trading plan.

- 5. Disclosures: Every Director and Key Managerial Personnel of the company holding securities of the company shall disclose his holding in the company within 30 days of the regulations taking effect in such formats as may be prescribed. Further every person being appointed a Director or Key Managerial Personnel in the company shall disclose his holding of securities in the company within 7 days of such appointment in such formats as may be prescribed.
- 6. The Board of Directors should ensure that the professional firms like auditors, analysts and consultants who are deemed to be connected person should formulate code of conduct at their own to deal with disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information of the company and code for trading of the securities of the company.
- 7. Implementation: The compliance officer shall supervise the implementation of 'Code of Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company' and 'Code of conduct for Insiders of the Company' and will ensure that all price sensitive information of the company shall be handled within the Organisation on a need-to-know basis and such information shall not be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligation. The compliance officer shall report to the Board of Directors on implementation of the codes, any need for modification, or any contravention of the policy, on quarterly rests. The Board of Directors shall cause enquiry on becoming aware of any leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of such information and initiate action thereof. The Whistle Blower Policy of the company shall contain provision for employees to report instance of leak of unpublished price sensitive information. Every designated employee or key managerial person shall declare adherence to the codes and confirm it in writing before the board of directors annually.

IV. Communications and Amendments

The 'Procedure and Guidelines Governing Insider Trading' will be communicated to each designated employee, connected person and directors by email or by hand and will be displayed in the website of the company.

The Board of Directors shall have the full authority to amend or modify these guidelines and waive any procedural requirements of the Policies subject to the guidelines issued by Securities and Exchange Board of India from time to time.
